Hotel de la Ville offers 5 banqueting and meeting rooms, all with natural daylight and equipped with the latest technologies. From the widest Royal Room to Queen's Room, perfect for board meetings, the experienced on-site staff, from the catering and conference departments, are committed to assist the meeting planners and coordinate every detail of business or social events in order to guarantee an unforgettable success.

History and Recognitions

Testimonials from the end of the 19th century show the dawn of the Hotel de la Ville in Monza, born as a Restaurant Eden and later transformed into a hotel. The management of the Nardi family dates back to 1958, and has now reached the fourth generation of hoteliers, all of whom have accumulated a passion and dedication for their work. A passion that has made the Hotel de La Ville - the only luxury hotel in the city affiliated to the prestigious hotel brand Small Luxury Hotels of the World - one of the most exclusive "houses" in Italy, where the charm of a private residence with its warm and welcoming atmosphere is the protagonist.

Additional Services

At the front desk: multi-lingual professional staff, safety box, facsimile-copying-printing services. In the lounge: Italian and foreign newspapers, Internet point. Room service, laundry and dry cleaning. Physician and baby-sitting on call.

Recreational Facilities

Small sauna and fitness area in "La Villa" dépendance. Courtesy bicycles available free of charge. Nearby: international Formula 1 racetrack, Milano Golf Club, spa, tennis club, fitness centre, swimming pool, athletics centre, jogging and riding school in the park.
